(Router's Service to the China Mail.)

FRANCE, GERMANY, AND THE ALLIES.

LONDON, April 10.
The French reply to the British note affirms the unquestionable loyalty of its attitude. France constantly informed the Allies of its policy. The French government always opposed the entry of supplementary German troops into Ruhr, which was only permissible on condition of the military occupation of Frankfurt and Darmstadt. France notified the Allies on April 3 that Foch was studying unavoidable military measures. The reply points out that the sole thing at present in question is the violation of one of the most solemn clauses of the treaty. The German government itself recognised the necessity of obtaining beforehand formal authorization for a breach of Article 43 and the right of the French government to demand a territorial guarantee in exchange for the breach.

The French reply asks how the French government could have been satisfied with the German promise to withdraw the Reichswehr immediately order was restored, seeing that the Allies had not received the satisfaction stipulated for by the treaty, for reparation, war damages, surrender of criminals, delivery of coal, and disarmament of the army. It asks whether the British government had calculated the whole danger of these successive systematic violations, and asks when Britain thinks it ought to stop. In granting concessions, it declares that France is compelled to say "enough." But France asks nothing better than that it can say so with all the Allies.

The French government is not less convinced than the British of the essential necessity of maintaining allied unity for the enforcement of the German treaty. It considers this intimate concert of France and Britain also indispensable for equitably settling the vast problems now confronting the world in Russia, the Balkans, Asia Minor, and throughout the whole of Islam. The reply concludes by assuring Britain that the French government for all these considerations is entirely disposed to make sure before acting of general assent in all interallied questions involved in the execution of the treaty.

Official circles consider that the British statement as regards the occupation of Frankfurt will open a series of Franco-British conversations covering the entire question of post-war relationship and allied action towards Germany. France's principal aim will be the maintenance of the Entente and the execution of the peace treaty.

Doctor Adolph Koester is appointed foreign secretary.

It is reported that the government has asked the Allies for a three-months prolongation of the period for maintenance of troops in the neutral zone, which expires to-day. This does not affect the recent reinforcements which have occasioned the French occupations.

BY-ELECTIONS.

LONDON, April 10.
At the Stockport by-election, offering two seats, Greenwood (Coalition Unionist) was elected with 22,847 votes, and Fikes (Coalition Liberal) with 22,386. Those not elected were: Chiozza-Money (Labour) 16,042, Perry (Co-operator) 14,434, Kindell (Independent) 5,644, Territt (Independent) 5,543, and O'Brien (Workers' Republican) 2,336.
At the Darford by-election the results were Mills (Labourist) 13,610, Wing (Liberal) 4,562, Mellor (Coalition Unionist) 4,221, Applin (National Party) 2,852, and Fehr (Independent) 1,802.

AMERICA KILLS CONSCRIPTION.

WASHINGTON, April 10.
The Senate has adopted voluntary enlistment instead of compulsory universal military training, by a vote of 46 to 9. The new plan becomes effective in 1922, and provides that men between 18 and 28 are eligible for four months training in any one year they may select.

WEDDINGS.

OSORIO-DA ROZA.

At the Rosary Church, Kowloon, on Sunday afternoon, the wedding took place of Mr. H. A. Osorio, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Osorio of Swatow, and Miss Delcimina Maria da Roza, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. da Roza of Shanghai.
The bride, was given away by her brother, Mr. P. O. da Roza, and was attired in a crepe satin dress, trimmed with silver cord and orange blossoms. She wore a tulle veil edged with silver cord and carried a bouquet of tea roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Ignaz da Roza, and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Letitia Osorio, while the best man, was Mr. F. P. Osorio. The Rev. Fr. Spada conducted the marriage ceremony, at the conclusion of which Mrs. Gonsales, at the organ, played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the residence of Mr. P. O. da Roza, in Granville Avenue. The house was tastefully decorated, a large wedding cake made of white flowers marking the entrance. The cake having been cut and served with champagne, Mr. F. M. Osorio, in a brief speech, wished the newly married couple a long and happy wedded life, and all prosperity and good fortune. Mr. and Mrs. Osorio left for Canton, where the honeymoon will be spent.

LESIE SMITH-MOXON.

The wedding took place this afternoon at 3.30 at St. John Cathedral of Major Colin Leslie Smith, 22nd Punjab, son of the late Gilbert Leslie-Smith, Indian Civil Service, and of Mrs. E. Leslie-Smith, and Miss Kathleen Sophie Moxon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Moxon, of "Dunsland", 109, the Peak.

The bride was given away by her father, and was attired in a dress of white lace, with a white brocade and silver train. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and roses. Her bridesmaids were the Mesdames Jean Gordon, Pamela Scott-Harston, Joan Beave's, Honor Hancock, and Rosamund Hancock, who wore dresses of pale pink georgette with hats to match, their bouquets being of pink rose. The best man was Lt. Col. C. Clement-Smith, 22nd Punjab. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. M. She-well, Chaplain to the Forces, while Mr. Denman Fuller was at the organ.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party left the Church under an archway of swords formed by the bridegroom's brother officers. A reception at the Hongkong Hotel was largely attended. The honeymoon will be spent in Japan and England. The bride's gift to the bridegroom was a gold wrist watch, while the bridegroom gave the bride a platinum and diamond brooch, and the presents to the bridesmaids were gold and pearl brooches.

When a Chinese was searched whilst going on board a Tai-ping junk yesterday, a quantity of revolver ammunition was found concealed about his person. He was removed to the Police station, and this morning charged before Mr. N. L. Smith, and fined $500, or, in default, one month's hard labour. The ammunition was confiscated.

EARLIER TELEGRAMS.

(Router's Service to the China Mail.)

AMERICA'S WHEAT CROP.

LONDON, April 9th.
A telegram from Washington states that the Wheat crop in the United States in 1920 is estimated at 433,017,000 bushels as compared with 331,338,000 in 1919. The heavy shortage attributed to the removal of the Government-guaranteed prices and slackening among the farmers following the winding of the war stimulus.

UNITED STATES POPULATION.

New York, April 8th.
The first National Immigration Conference, has been opened under the auspices of the International Immigration Council. Mr. Coleman Dupon, one of the Directors of the Council, in opening the proceedings, announced that the United States population was one million short owing to the dwindling of immigration in war-time.

OLD DOMINION STEAMERS.

New York, April 8th.
It is announced that the old Dominion Shipping Company has disposed of its steamers to New York shipping firms owing, it is said, to the high cost of labour, materials and supplies to the lines serving the coast towns. The new owners will use the ships on the trans-Atlantic route.

CINEMA "STARS" MARRIAGE.

RENO, NEVADA, April 8th.
In connection with the recent marriage of the cinema "stars" Mary Pickford and Mr. Douglas Fairbanks the State Law Official, who investigated the circumstances of the divorce of Mary Pickford from her first husband, has announced that a suit to set it aside, on the ground of alleged collusion and conspiracy, will shortly be filed.

NEW BUDGET.

LONDON, April 9th.
It is foreshadowed that the Budget which will be introduced on April 16th, will include increased taxation on imported wines and motorcars, and increased postal rates, while there will be a complete recasting of income-tax giving relief to married men and imposing heavier evasion penalties. It is regarded as certain also that it will suggest a solution of the problem of the Excess Profits Tax which at present stands at 40 per cent. It is understood that the Cabinet yesterday approved the Chancellor's Budget scheme.

THE PRINCE'S TOUR.

SAN DIEGO, April 8th.
The Prince of Wales has sailed for Honolulu.
SAN DIEGO, April 8th.
The Prince of Wales had a wonderful reception, being welcomed by the Governor, the Mayor and a Reception Committee. There were vast crowds gathered to see the Prince, including two hundred British subjects, all stations of life. The piers of the Seaforts and Camerons headed by General Carruthers led the procession which was formed, and marched to the Stadium where an audience of 20,000 applauded in response to a call of Mr. Dunne Mackinnon to welcome the Prince to their country.
The Governor and the Mayor spoke in cordial terms.
The Prince of Wales, replying, recalled the wonderful time he spent in Washington and New York last year and said that the present hospitality was equally generous.

ANOTHER STRIKE IN AMERICA.

CHICAGO, April 9th.
The railwaymen's strike, which started a week ago, now affects twenty-five railroads and 80,000 persons are unemployed in Chicago, besides many thousands men in the dockyards who have been rendered idle. The strike is affecting Kansas, Buffalo, Los Angeles and all the Pacific Coast traffic is threatened with interruption.
CHICAGO, April 8th.
The railwaymen's strike has spread. Brakemen in Jersey City have struck, further imperilling New York's food supply, already endangered by the strike of harbour workers.

UNREST IN IRELAND.

LONDON, April 8th.
Three policemen were ambushed in Tipperary. Two were shot dead and one was badly wounded.

HAYAS REVIEW.

PARIS, April 8th.
A Hayas message says:—
The occupation of German towns was completed yesterday.
The French troops took over Homburg. Disorders caused by Pan-Germans students are reported from Frankfurt. There were quickly repressed. A few persons were killed.
The Germans yesterday forwarded the French Government a Note protesting against the occupation. The French reply, which was forwarded to Berlin last night, points out that the German invasion of the neutral zone in the Ruhr Basin was not only a violation of the treaty, constituting a casus belli, but also a breach of a definite pledge given separately to France.
There is reason to believe that the Germans will evacuate the Ruhr valley in the course of a few days.
The Atlanta News has arrived at Marseille with the "Mission" consisting of Masada, Chibaux and Sakay on board. M. Clemenceau is abandoning his proposed visit to Athens and will embark for Marseilles on Saturday.

SPIRITUALISM.

"DECEIVING THE VERY ELECT."

(By MARIE CORRELL.)

Truth is never popular. The majority spend their lives in avoiding it.
This is, perhaps, the reason why the present-day discussions on so-called "spiritualism" purposely overlook, or fail to recall, the pronouncement made by the Founder of Christianity on this very subject: "There shall arise false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders, inasmuch that if it were possible they shall deceive the very elect." (Matt. 24, v. 24.) No one seems willing to quote this plain declaration as a warning to the deluded public; no, not though in America the ecclesiastical authorities, both Protestant and Catholic, have at last bestirred themselves and pronounced a ban against "spiritualism" and assumed communication with the dead. Plainly they should have done this long ago, but that "the herding who care not for the sheep" has let wolves into their pastures and usurped their powers while they slept.
It is somewhat late now "officially" to warn communicants that an attempt to hold converse with the dead is contrary to the sanction of the Church, while Sir Oliver Lodge is drawing credulous audiences to listen to his expositions of life beyond the grave.
In this country the Churches have not spoken with any definite firmness; they are considering the lively possibilities of "cinemas" in the hitherto sacred shrines of prayer.

Moreover, it has to be remembered that a curious, but by no means uncommon, phenomenon is the intense satisfaction humanity finds in deceiv-ing itself. We are taught that the brain is dual; but we do not generally realize that in certain conditions of health the one half plays tricks with the other, after the fashion of a mischievous child intent on teasing its twin. By reflex action and inter-communication of nerve stimuli a confusion is set up which distorts every natural movement into something abnormal. In ancient days the priests of Egypt and India studied the art of deception as a science; and were adepts in subtle methods of influencing the brain-cells of their dupes, realizing, as they did, that the weaker minds of the many could be usefully exploited for the advantage of the few.
We in our twentieth century, with all our scientific discoveries and "progressive" civilization, are really no farther advanced, intellectually, morally, or mentally, than the old-time priests over whom the Assyrian and Egyptian magi held their sway. We are just as easily deluded by appearances. In a rare book entitled "The Prodigies of Egypt," translated from the original Arabic by Vattier, Arabic Professor to the King of France (Louis XIV.), in 1672, it is related how the priests of Memphis appeared before the people according to their different arts of magic:

"One with light about him, another surrounded with flames, another with winged creatures circling overhead"—yet, says the narrator, "all was but apparition and illusion without any reality." Inasmuch that when they came up to the King they spoke and said:
"You imagined that it was so, but the truth is that it was such and such an illusion."

AUTOMATIC WRITING.

Here, were credulous persons inclined to reason (which they never are), they might pluck out the heart of "mediumistic" mysteries. You imagine that it is so, but the truth is that it is such and such an illusion.
The mesmerist, the hypnotist, the illusionist work; each and all, to be found in ancient Babylon as in modern London and New York, and their methods were far less vulgar and commonplace than those of their imitators to-day.
As for "automatic writing," it is no more than the natural result of the writer's thought. The active impetus comes from no external "spirit," but from cell-movement in the brain, and the hand "automatically" obeys the brain. Every poet, every imaginative literary genius writes "automatically." Sometimes, indeed, like Keats and Shelley, they themselves hardly understand the meaning of certain wonderful phrases flowing from the pen, such as the famous "magic casements opening on the foam of perilous seas in fairy lands forlorn." No authors, if they are honest, can precisely explain how or why they imagine or write a story or a poem.
They will tell you that "it just comes." William Beckett was a notable example of this brain-impulse.

TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF

If you want a clear head and good digestion, you must not let your bowels become clogged with poisonous waste from the body. As it is always the case when you become constipated, Proper food, an abundance of water and plenty of outdoor exercise should keep your bowels regular. When that fails you should take Chamberlain's Tablets.
They cause a gentle movement, and the bowels are easy and pleasant to take. For sale by all Chemists and Druggists.

Health and Happiness.

There is no simpler or more natural remedy for the maintenance of good health and buoyant cheerfulness than the "daily glass of water with a dash of

Prepared only by J. C. ENO, Ltd., "Fruit Salt" Works, London, Eng.

Moved by sensuous delight in the voluptuous and fantastic, he, an Englishman, wrote the Oriental story of "Vathek" in French, in a continuous "automatic" rush of picturesque narrative, and, as he himself stated,
"It took me three days and two nights of hard labour, and I never took off my clothes the whole time."

Here was "automatic writing" of a high order, but Beckett did not pretend to be "impressed by spirit messages," or to offer his impressions to the public as communications from the dead. The sad-featured clergyman (if portraits are to be accepted) who has permitted himself to be exploited as an advertisement for a newspaper does not write of Heaven as well as Beckett did of Hell, but his "automatic writing" is like that of any fictionist desirous of attracting public attention. And it is quite possible he may succeed in "automatically" writing a "communicated novel." But it will be none the worse, and probably the better, if he writes it under the "steady and gentle pressure" not of imaginary spirit influence, but of his own brain-impulse; which is the sole guide to any "automatic" movement of his hand.

The only sad excuse for a "spiritualism" which is not spiritualism at all is that the promoters of it are not in a normal state of mental balance.
The twin lobes of the brain are not acting in unison; the one half is out of poise, and affects the other half in a more or less degree. This is why we see the brilliant scientist in Lodge able to argue profound mathematical matters with perfect ease and lucidity, while, on the other hand, he publishes "Raymond," with all its melancholy perilousity. The same thing has happened to Conan Doyle. I specially mention these two examples because,
in their normal state, they are gifted men. Now they are affected abnormally by temporary nerve phenomena,

FOOTBALL

CLOSING GAME OF THE SEASON.

SWAN WINS HONGKONG "SHIELD" FOR POLICE.

The closing game of the 1919-20 football season, was played on the Club ground on Saturday. The usual Hongkong football crowd, several deep all around the playing pitch, was thronging the grounds long before the time scheduled for the kick-off of the replay in the final of the Hongkong "Shield" competition between the Hongkong Police and St. Joseph's College. The accommodation of the grand stand was exhausted, and extra benches had to be put in front of the stand. H. E. the Governor, accompanied by Lady Stubbs and Capt. J. E. Warner, was amongst the early arrivals. Big rounds of applause greeted the teams as they took the field, the Police preceding the Collegians. After a few minutes of practice, the calling whistle was sounded, and a minute later the match, which held a lot of surprises for the College supporters, was in full swing.

Everybody gives Swan, the Police Goals, credit for the win. Thanks to Swan's almost unerring judgment, which always placed him in the right position to stop the ball, half-a-dozen shining shots, everyone of which would have gone past; any other goal-keepers were wasted. In short, the Police had Swan and all the luck.

The Collegians were the superior team as far as scientific football was concerned, and they came in for much applause for the smart foot-work they exhibited.

THE PLAY.

POLICE, 3; ST. JOSEPH'S, 1. The match opened tamely, with the Collegians doing some clever dribbling in mid-field. Omar was placed in possession by Silva, and ran down the right wing with a speed which the Police were unable to keep up with. He centered nicely, but he had been running so fast, that his own men were left behind, and there was no one to receive the ball when he passed it. Swan rushed out and caught the ball. L. Xavier rushed him, but he got rid of the ball in the nick of time, and McWalters did the needful. The Police went on the attack, but Sepher stopped them easily, and running up the field placed Hyndman in possession. That worthy dribbled past the half backs without an effort, and when Clark came for him, he kicked the ball over the latter's head and ran round him, but McWalters, who was behind Clark, kicked the ball away before Hyndman could get to it. Sepher trapped the ball and passed to L. Xavier who tipped it to Rahmin. Clark went for the latter, but he centered and got out of Clark's way in the nick of time. The ball skimmed the cross bar and went into touch. Swan kicked to mid-field, and set Grimmer and Robertson going. In attempting to get past E. P. Hyndman, Grimmer came to grief, and was disabled. He had to leave the field for a while. The Collegians took the ball to enemy territory, and kept it there for a long while, subjecting Swan to a very uncomfortable time, but the latter's power of anticipation stood him in good stead, and he cleared every shot in great style. Then Silva sent in a stinging long shot which went over the cross bar. Had that shot been a bit lower, it was doubtful if even Swan would have stopped it. After another spell of uninteresting mid-field play, Grimmer returned, and between himself and Robertson, they ran the ball into enemy territory. Sepher worried Robertson, and the latter winged the ball to Alexander. Ogley kept pace with his man, but did not attempt to check his progress until near the top of the field, when he got in Alexander's way. In the course of the tackle, Ogley slipped and fell, and dodging round him, Alexander chased the ball and was just in time to stop it before it went into touch. Seeing Ogley making tracks for him, Alexander did not waste much time to think, but took a hasty shot towards goal. The ball made straight for the right top corner of the net. Rushing up, Omar jumped to clear, and missed the ball by a fraction of an inch, and the ball shot straight into the net at the other end of the goal. From the centre, Hyndman and Silva, who always combined well together, made a beeline for enemy territory, where, faced by Clark, Hyndman kicked the ball forward, expecting Silva to take it; but he kicked a second too soon, before Silva was in position, and McWalters cleared. Omar got possession, and curving in, he sent a shot across goal. Swan fisted it out. Then, when there was about three more minutes to go before half time, the Police attacked, and E. P. Hyndman topped Grimmer, but he tripped over the ball as he attempted to get rid of it, and fell full length on the ground. Sepher passed the ball to Ogley, but the latter was not in position, and Alexander, trapping the ball, ran up by about a yard from goal, and then shot. Omar kicked the ball away, but Alexander could get to it. Both Alexander and his inside partner pounced on the ball, and whilst Kelly kept Hyndman off, Alexander shot the ball and found the net. The half time whistle which was blown immediately after the ball was centered, found the Police leading by two goals to nil.

The second moiety opened with the Collegians in enemy territory. The Police defenders spoiled all the Collegians' attacks by simply stumbling into the way of the ball, and kicking it away. The Collegians again showed some fine footwork at mid-field, and then Hyndman headed the ball accidentally, and the Police were awarded a free kick. Robertson trapped the ball and after succeeding in dodging Hyndman for the first time, shot straight into Omar's hands. Grimmer went for the ball out. Hyndman kicked away, and the ball made straight for the touch line. Urquhart successfully saved a corner by stopping the ball an inch from the touch line. He kicked the ball over his head just as the Police's right-winger came towards him, and, unfortunately for his side, the ball shot straight into the centre of the goal. Omar fisted it away, and a metee followed, in the course of which Robertson found the net with a swift ground kick, which gave Omar no chance. The Collegians reorganised their forward line after this, Ogley changing place with E. R. Hyndman. Silva worked the ball into enemy territory, and passed to Ogley when in front of the backs. Both Clark and McWalters attempted to stop Ogley's progress, but the latter used his weight to great advantage, and pushed his way through the two; making straight for Swan, who was for the first time face to face with real danger, and stood rooted to the ground in the middle of the goal. Instead of taking a shot, Ogley passed swiftly to L. Xavier, who did not have much difficulty in finding the net with a swift ground shot. The Collegians began to "find" themselves after this, and returned to the attack immediately after centering the ball. They kept the ball in enemy territory for the rest of the match, and gave the whole Police defence a busy and trying time to prevent them from scoring. Silva took two shots at goal, but they went wide by a couple of inches. Then Hyndman shot the ball right into Swan's hands. L. Xavier and Silva both worried Swan, and he was unable to get rid of the ball. He held on to it however, until the referee blew the whistle and awarded the Collegians a free kick. The Police defence all lined up in front of the goal whilst Ogley took the kick. Instead of shooting the ball low, Ogley lifted it into the air. He succeeded in getting the ball over the heads of the defenders, but Swan, who was standing in the middle of the goal, jumped up and fisted the ball away. The whole of the Collegians' defence came up to support their forwards after this, but they had no luck, and the ball was always shot against someone of the defenders, who were packed in front of their goal in a desperate attempt to prevent its downfall. The ball occasionally found its way to the Police forwards, and they made the most of the clear field in front of them and dashed towards goal. It was here that the Collegians showed to advantage their great speed, and chasing the "runaways," they always managed to overhaul them when near goal, and rob them of the ball with apparently no great effort. The Collegians did not waste a single second in returning to the attack, but luck and time were against them, and although they played like demons, and had some narrow shaves, they did not score again, and the final whistle found the Police this season's winners of the "shield" by three goals to one.

PRESENTATION OF THE SHIELD.

At the conclusion of the match, H. E. the Governor presented the trophies to the teams—the Challenge Shield, presented by the community of Hongkong, to the Police; the David Cup, to the Collegians, and medals to both teams. He also handed over to the College team, handsome gold medals presented by St. Joseph's College, as a mark of appreciation of their sterling good play, frequently against heavy odds, in this year's Challenge Shield competition. Mr. E. J. Wilton, the president of the Hongkong F.C., before asking H. E. to give away the trophies, said that the Shield was presented for competition, in 1897. A splendid entry of ten clubs entered, and the Competition for this season, and in the majority of cases, the matches had been of a ding-dong nature. Of the two finalists, St. Joseph's had the hardest fight to the final, beating Kowloon F.C. after a drawn game, and then the Hongkong F.C. in the semi-final, also after a drawn game. This was their first appearance in the final. The Police have had an easier passage into the final, though they beat a difficult team in the first round viz.—H.M.S. Carlisle. Unfortunately, the Ambrose were unable to field a team against them; also the Hebe had to leave the Colony, thereby giving the Police a walk-over into the final, to meet St. Joseph's College. He congratulated the winners, and said that the Collegians deserved great credit for the fight they had put up. He thanked Messrs. Snooks and Coaker for their excellent refereeing during the competition.

H. E. the Governor, having given away the Shield, the Cup, and the medals amidst loud applause, said that it only remained for him to congratulate the Police on their success after such an excellent game, also on their goalkeeper (Cheers). He had also to congratulate St. Joseph's College on the splendid fight they had put up, and their hard work throughout the competition. He wished them better luck another year. Cheers for His Excellency and the two teams were then given, and the gathering dispersed.

ROYAL HONGKONG YACHT CLUB.

THE CLOSING CRUISE.

The Royal Hongkong Yacht Club held its closing cruise on Saturday, the event being favoured with good weather but only a small attendance, this latter undoubtedly being due to the rain strike. Tea was provided on the lawn and later the prizes won during the season were presented by Mrs. Frank Smyth, wife of the Club's Commodore.

Mr. A. R. Lowe, the Vice-Commodore, said—Ladies and gentlemen, the Committee of the Royal Hongkong Yacht Club have deputed me to express their pleasure at seeing so goodly a crowd here to-day to celebrate the closing of the past racing season, in spite of the stoppage of the tramway cars. Previous Commodores have breezily and eloquently held forth on past occasions on all the details of the racing, but as I was elected Vice-Commodore during my absence and, unfortunately, missed more than half the racing season, I feel sure you will excuse me from talking about the little I know. I may say, however, that for all events there has been keen competition. Some have not succeeded as they hoped to do, and others like myself, have been more lucky than we anticipated. All, however, have benefited by the healthiest of all open air sports, and that is the great thing. Personally, I am never so happy as when I can get out of the harbour quickly, but I must acknowledge the pleasurable feeling of getting back in time for dinner the same night. (Applause.)—Our Rowing members had their Regatta last month when the Canton men came down to give them a good dusting. They are, however, visiting Canton next week, and intend to reverse matters if possible. I am sure we wish them all success. (Applause.)—There is, as you see by the programme, a longer list of prizes than usual, and in asking the Commodore's wife, Mrs. Frank Smyth, to present the prizes, I am sure the ladies present will agree that her pleasure in carrying out this arduous duty is not lessened by finding her husband's son amongst the successful yachtsmen of the year. (Applause.)—I will now ask her to present the prizes.

At the conclusion of the awards, Mr. Frank Smyth said that it was a pleasure and privilege to tender them his thanks in his wife's behalf, for the honour done her in asking her for a second time, to present the prizes to the successful competitors in the yacht racing held during the past season. She appreciated it, he could assure them, all the more as she was shortly returning home, and he was sure she wished to feel that her last public appearance was in connection with that club. She would always look back on it as one of the events of her life, not only because she took a keen interest in racing herself, but for the kindly thoughts which prompted the members to honour her that day. Yacht racing, as Mr. Lowe had pointed out, was not such a spectacular event as some other forms of sport, but he ventured to think that those who took part in it appreciated its joys, and he was happy to say that the club membership was about double what it was formerly. (Applause.)—People heard of the joys of yacht racing, and the success achieved by those who took part in it, and as a result, others joined up, and he was sure that the club would very soon show a record as a yacht club in the East coast. (Applause.)—Ladies were taking part in racing, and next year if he had anything to do with the club, he would institute a series of ladies' championship events. At any rate, he would try it with the help of the ladies, and if they showed the same interest as at present it was sure to be a success. He thanked those who had come there that evening, at so much expense and trouble due to the disorganisation of traffic. The club appreciated it, and thanked them very much. The only hope that the next time they had a function they would have less difficulty in coming. (Applause.)

Miss Kathleen Lowe then presented Mrs. Smyth with a bouquet of flowers in a silver vase.

The Hon. Mr. H. E. Pollock said that, as a member of the club for over thirty years, he had been asked to propose a vote of thanks to the Commodore and the Committee. The announcement made by the Commodore that the membership had doubled was interesting and was a great thing for the club. He had always taken a keen interest in racing. He hoped that the healthy sport of yachting would always be encouraged by the residents of the Colony, as it was one of the most agreeable forms of sports in the Colony. In conclusion he thanked the Commodore, the Vice-Commodore and the Committee of the Club for the great attention and interest paid to the club in the year. (Applause.)

Cheers were called for Mrs. Smyth, the ladies and the Committee and lustily given.
